

Special Thanks

The Jackson Hole Community Band gratefully acknowledges the financial contributions made by the Community Foundation of Jackson Hole, all those who donate through Old Bills Fun Run, the JHCB members, and other generous contributors who have supported us.

We also express our sincere gratitude to the staff and directors of the Jackson Hole Center for the Arts for their support in maintaining rehearsal time and space, providing access to our music and equipment for holiday performances, and helping promote our events.

Thank you all for coming to our concert today. Your support and encouragement makes music fun for all of us.

If you would like to lend additional support, donations will be happily accepted with our sincere appreciation. JHCB is a §501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization. Donations are accepted on line at www.JHCBand.org, through the mail, or in our "Donation Horn" at this concert.

We are an all volunteer band. Our members hail from diverse backgrounds and range in age from early-teens to the eighties. Abilities range from advanced Middle School students, community members returning to their musical roots, music majors, and semi professionals. Many members have had a 15- to 20- year break before joining. More about the musicians at jhcband.org/ourmembers
